

Hilliard Schools Facts 2006

Area

About 60 square miles in northwest Franklin County, including all of Norwich and Brown townships; part of Washington, Franklin and Prairie townships; the City of Hilliard; part of the cities of Dublin and Columbus; and less than one square mile in Union County.

About 47.52% of students reside in Columbus, 35.95% in Hilliard, and 16.53% in the townships (1/2004).

District Population

Organized in the late 1800s and encompassing approximately 60 square miles in and around the city of Hilliard, the district celebrates diversity through its current rapid growth. The Hilliard City School District includes portions of the City of Columbus, the City of Dublin and five surrounding townships. According to 2000 data from the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the under-18 population in the school district grew 111 percent between 1990 and 2000. In 1989, the school district population was 35,896. By the year 2000, our population had jumped to 79,125.

Enrollment

Overall (12/06): 14,949

Preschool Total: 247

Elementary Total: 6,960

Sixth Grade School Total: 1,093

Middle School Total: 2,361

High School Total: 4,288

Schools

As the 9th largest school district in the state of Ohio, the Hilliard City School District serves more than 14,900 students in grades K-12, through two high schools, three middle schools, two sixth-grade schools and 13 elementary schools. The district also operates a transportation center, an administration building and a maintenance/resource center.

Staff

Teachers: 1,157 (09/06):